RE: JOB SHARING

For the duration of the Collective Agreement, those employees choosing to participate in a Job Share may do so under the following parameters:

General:

Job Sharing is an arrangement, which allows two qualified, permanent full time employees to equally divide the hours, responsibilities, wages, and benefits of one full-time position according to the provisions of an agreement between the job share partners, the Employer and the Union. As such, the shared position continues to be identified as a full time position. The Employer will consider Job share proposals for approval, provided there is no adverse impact on service delivery and no net increase in cost to the Employer, and that the following Guidelines are adhered to:

Program Participation and Eligibility:

- Proposals for job sharing must be employee driven. Only employees in full-time permanent positions, who are fully qualified for the shared position, may initiate a job-sharing proposal. Qualifications will be assessed by the Employer and may involve testing.
- Casual, part-time, contract, and temporary positions are exempt from this program. Eligible Job Share Employees must not be in probationary or trial periods or temporary assignments (outside their "home" position).
- The hours of work for the two employees will be divided such that each employee will work 50% of the hours of the full time position.
- A proposal to job share will be submitted by the employees to their respective managers. The manager for the position to be job shared will consider the proposal for approval, having regard for the employees' qualifications and any adverse impact on service levels. In the event that a proposal is refused, the manager will provide reasons, in writing, to the employees.
- When a job-sharing proposal is supported, employees will be required to enter into a job sharing agreement. Approval of a job sharing arrangement will require the signature of the employees involved, the Union, and the Employer.
- One of the job share employees will relinquish the rights to his/her position and that position will be posted as a full-time permanent vacancy at such time as the job sharing agreement is signed.
- When an employee leaves a shared position, the remaining employee will revert back to full-time hours, with 14 days advance notice.
- Job share employees retain the right to apply for job vacancies in accordance with the terms of the Collective Agreement.
- A job share employee shall be entitled to paid holidays on a prorated basis under the terms of the Collective Agreement.
- Employees entering into job sharing arrangements shall have satisfactory job performance and attendance.

- Where employees interested in job sharing are in different classification levels, the shared position will be the one at the lower classification with salary adjustments made to the higher-level employee. The higher-level employee will be placed on the salary grid for the lower level position at the closest point on the salary range to their current pay rate. Anniversary dates for the purpose of salary increments will not be affected by a job share arrangement.
- A job share employee will, whenever possible cover the absence of a job share partner in the event of illness, (other than an extended period of short term sick leave, or long term disability), vacation, or bereavement unless agreed to by all parties to the job sharing agreement. Any additional work agreed to by the Manager and the employee would be at straight time rates up to 35 hours per week.
- Job share employees will accumulate seniority, on a pro-rated basis. Prior to the commencement of a job share, employees shall be provided earned vacation entitlement in the form of compensation or vacation with pay or a combination thereof.
- Benefits and vacation granted job-sharing partners would be in accordance with those approved for part-time employees under this Collective Agreement.
- If the Employer finds the job-sharing arrangement is not satisfactory during the first 90 days, it shall give 14 days written notice of the termination of the job share arrangement to the job share partners and the Union. All employees affected by the job share will revert to their former position per this Collective Agreement.
